

We are working closely with a local charity offering counselling and therapy to young people and children. We thank them for their recent visit and delivering a listening and respect course with the children. On the day, we raised money which we have donated to the trust in order to help facilitate the work that they do. Please follow the link below for more information.

<https://www.philippitrust.com/about-us-1/st-helens-counselling-training-centre/>